Executive Summary:

jetAVIVA announced the creation of a dedicated Embraer-focused sales department, reinforcing the company's leadership position in the pre-owned Embraer aircraft market. The new division will be led by President Ryan Scott alongside newly appointed Managing Director Timon Huber, whose 36-year career with Embraer brings extensive product expertise and market knowledge to the team. Since 2006, jetAVIVA has completed transactions involving more than 250 Embraer aircraft, and the company expects the specialized department to support continued growth as demand expands across the Praetor and broader business jets for sale market. The announcement further strengthens jetAVIVA's reputation as a trusted private jet broker and private jet expert for clients seeking guidance on how to buy a private jet or how to sell a private jet.

Key Takeaways:

- jetAVIVA launched a specialized department focused exclusively on Embraer aircraft sales and acquisitions.
- Timon Huber joined the company as Managing Director after a 36-year career with Embraer, adding extensive OEM experience and industry relationships.
- The company has completed more than 250 Embraer aircraft transactions since 2006, supporting continued growth in the expanding pre-owned Praetor and private jets for sale market.

Notable Quotes:

"We now look forward to putting jetAVIVA's combined 90 years of experience selling these aircraft to work for our clients."

"I have always admired the customer-centric culture at jetAVIVA."
